

The morning Lobby was repeated.

DISCRIMINATION

We indicated that the Prime Minister obviously felt that to take action against a medical practise that advertised for a Christian doctor was going somewhat over the top. The Prime Minister was aware that it was not illegal to discriminate on grounds of religion. Obviously in this case CRE had decided that indirect discrimination had taken place.

PB