

TWO HARRIERS LOST

There is no further information beyond the original statement that "contact was lost" and the fact that they may have collided in fog remains speculation.

GEEST PORT

Should you have any enquiries the press line on the GEEST PORT is:

LINE:

The GEEST PORT has been chartered from her owners, Geestline, for use as a solid support ship, mainly for the transport of food. The GEEST PORT, ert 7730, is Geestline's newest ship and is normally employed on the West Indian run transporting fruit. While under charter to MOD GEEST PORT will be crewed by her normal crew with the addition of some RN/RFA augmentees to provide specialist assistance.
