Re Governor

Mty with Chancellor, next week.

I have been on to the Chancellor's Office. Monday wd. be v. difficult for the Chancellor (is probably too early for you?), on Tuesday you are in Scotland & on Wednesday he is in Italy. Their first choice is 2.30 on Thursday afternoon. I said I wd. consult you but that it might be difficult for you. Chere's lunch (at in Paris). Later on Th. pm. maybe possible & almost certainly about 5.30 or 6.00 wd be OK.

Otherwise, a time on Friday wd be easy to find.

How would you like me to respond, please?

I have confirmed with the Chancellor's Office the timing of your next meeting with the Chancellor - ~~2.30~~ pm (or 2.45 pm, if the Chancellor's programme can be changed to allow it) on Thursday 8 July, at No 11. The lunch for the Bank of China representative will, as you mentioned, have to end in good time.
