Dear Gordon:

I am pleased to report that all of the central banks represented at the May conference on monetary targeting have responded affirmatively to my May 21 proposal to publish the papers presented along with the discussants' remarks. Accordingly, we are proceeding with a view to publication later this year. I am asking Drs. Meek and Davis to prepare a brief paper to introduce the volume, giving a broad view of the themes commonly developed in the various papers and discussant remarks contained therein.

I extend my deep personal appreciation to the Bank of England for making this conference such a success.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Tony
