Dear Roger

I am writing to let you know that the German Minister of Agriculture, Herr Kiechle, has accepted an invitation from my Minister to visit London for discussions on the current CAP Reform and Price Fixing negotiations. Herr Kiechle will arrive in the afternoon of 1 March; there will be a formal meeting and then my Minister will host a dinner for him and his party. He will leave first thing the next morning. He is expected to be accompanied by Herr Rohr, his State Secretary, and other officials.

I am copying this letter to John Coles (No 10), John Kerr (H M Treasury) and David Williamson (Cabinet Office).

Yours ever

C I LLEWELYN
Private Secretary
