

Pa
Dmb
15/3

PRIME MINISTER (2)

Libyan Terrorism

The Home Secretary announced today his intention to deport seven people in connection with recent Libyan terrorist attacks. Orders have actually been served on five people who are in custody. The other two are still at large.

These seven deportations are in addition to the four people who have already been charged. The Police believe it unlikely that they would succeed in prosecuting any of the seven.

Dmb

mf

14 March 1984