THE PRIME MINISTER

15 July 1986

Dear Brian,

As I told you when we met on Sunday, I was deeply grateful for the excellent arrangements made for my visit to Vancouver for the British Day of EXPO 86. I should be grateful if my thanks could be conveyed to all those concerned, including those responsible for my security.

May I also thank you very much for your kindness in coming to the airport at Montreal for our talks. It was useful to establish where we both stand on the South Africa problem before what bodes to be a difficult meeting of Commonwealth Heads of Government in August. I was also very grateful to learn of Canada's generous contribution in support of the Anglo-Irish Agreement. I am sure that this will be widely welcomed.

I was sorry that there was not a chance to say goodbye to you before my departure. But I look forward very much to welcoming you once again to London in early August.

Yours
Raymond

The Right Honourable Brian Mulroney, PC, MP.
